PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Lines by... Lindy

I hope we will see some of our snowbirds migrate back to our meetings now that our weather is getting warmer! We have received many compliments regarding our new shorter agenda. We also have a very exciting year ahead. Our committee chairs have worked very hard planning new classes, activities, retreats, and events. Thank you for the village that makes our guild wonderful.

Please note that we go to our summer nighttime meeting schedule in JUNE. Also, June's meeting will be on June 9 instead of June 16 (the church has their summer Bible School all week). Our June workshop is on June 10!

I want to give a huge shout out to several members who really stepped up to make our new storage cabinets a reality! We had a few hiccups, but the first unit is in (we might have two eventually)! Belinda Evans, Cathy Fraizer, and Heidi Llanes spent two days assembling what is now our storage at the church...yay! The unit is in our workshop room! I think we need to establish a new committee called "BBQG Handyman" and Heidi will be the chair!!!! Thank you, thank you, and hugs to match for all the hard work you three did.

Learn, Create, Inspire and Share!

Hugs,

Lindy

Hello Members!

I apologize, I am not going to be at the April meeting due to my mom having eye surgery. Jeannie will be there! So the tickets for the Opportunity Quilt will be handed out at the May General Meeting. I will update the membership count also for the May newsletter. If you have not submitted your membership, please do so before the May meeting so everyone can receive their tickets in case they would like to sell some to offset their membership fee.

Thank you,
Heidi

35 YEAR ANNIVERSARY OF BBQ BLOCK SWAP

Hello Everyone,

What a great turn-out for the Block Swap!! Fourteen different blocks were completed and made available for "Swapping". What a wonderful imaginative variety too. Can't wait to see what you all make. Finished projects are due at the August 2025 meeting. Members vote for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places. All projects will be displayed at our Labor Day show.

Thanks for your energy and participation.

CHALLENGE QUILTS - THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR...

The 2025 Challenge Quilt packets are available. "These boots are made for..." is the theme and collage is the method. The template provided for the challenge is of a Cowboy Boot. You may create any type of boot you desire to fit within your theme. The boot does need to stay the size of the template and the entire piece needs to be 60% collage. The quilter decides what is collage and what is not. Completed quilts are due at the July 2025 meeting.

Wendy Stephens, Challenge Quilt Chair

CALLING ALL UFO'S

We will be working on completing our unfinished objects from November 2025 - October 2025. The cost is $10.00. Bring your finished project{s} to a meeting and get a ticket to put in the drawing bucket. We will draw a ticket at the October 2025 meeting to see who is the winner of the money pool. Sign-ups began at the October 2024 meeting, but you can sign up to join at any meeting. It only takes one ticket to win! We currently have 10 participants = $100.00

Susan Solomonson, UFO Coordinator

NEW MEETING ADDITIONS

We have reformatted our general meeting agenda to include more member participation and fun. First, we still have our birthday, *bargain, *philanthropy, and *craft tables.

Now we have added The Fat Quarter Give Away, *Buck a Brag and our *50-50 drawing. *Buck a Brag is just what it sounds like...share something about yourself we might not know and donate a dollar (or more!), the 50-50 drawing is a fabulous way of going home with some extra cash. You buy tickets, one person wins, and the guild profits, too!

All proceeds go to our general fund which enables our guild to function (especially for all the little stuff)!*

Lindy Edmond, President

FAT QUARTER GIVE AWAY

Wearing your name badge at our general meetings qualifies you for two drawings! First, you will be entered in that meetings drawing to win a fat quarter! You will also be entered in our annual Christmas drawing to win $$$$$. If you come to every meeting throughout the year, you'll have 11 chances to win!

Lindy Edmond, President

MIDDLE SCHOOL SEWING CAMP

After almost two years of planning, we held our first class in March! We had 9 wonderful and eager students ranging from 8 to 12 years old. We had 9 mentors helping the kids and one lead teacher. I'm not sure who had more fun, us or the kids! All the kids finished at least 5 projects, including our bears for donations. Many of these students have already signed up for our next two classes, one in July and another in October. Please see the new Sewing Camp flyer in this newsletter and share it with friends that might have children that are interested in learning to sew! I've included some great pictures of our 4 days of sewing, too!

WAYS AND MEANS

As chairperson for Ways and Means I have some exciting events for 2025.

The guild will be participating in the Memorial Weekend Yard Sale in Big Bear. This is a great opportunity for us to raise money for the guild with little money invested. We will also be selling lemonade and cookies. The lemonade is taken care of so I will be asking for home baked cookies to be donated.

Kelley Smythe has graciously offered her house for the yard sale: 1017 Eagle Mountain Drive in Big Bear City on Friday May 23rd from 9:00am-3:00pm and Saturday, May 24th from 9:00am-3:00pm.

We are asking for donations excluding furniture and large items. Anything unsold will be taken to the local thrift stores. We will also set up tables to sell guild bargain table fabrics.

Kelley will begin taking donations starting Friday, May 16th till no later than Thursday, May 22nd (the day before the sale starts). You can text her to arrange a time for drop off (310) 892-7745

There will be sign up sheets to volunteer for this event.

More information to come.

Elaine Dobiesz, Ways and Means Chairperson

ANNUAL BUSY BEARS TEA PARTY

The Annual Busy Bears Tea Party is scheduled for Saturday, June 7th Noon-3:00pm, Heritage Hall, Community Church. Cost is $25 per person. Spots are still available.

QUILT SHOW

Hello Quilters,

April is the month that we actively start letting people know that we are having our "Mountain Treasures Quilt Show" on Labor Day Weekend...and this year it is extra special because it is our 35th quilt show! We invite our members, both old and new, to share their quilts with the public to celebrate and preserve this traditional art form. We always hope that by displaying our quilts of so many sizes, types and genres that we are able to inspire others to discover the rewards of the quilting arts.

It takes all of us to make this quilt show happen. In the coming months we will be seeking volunteers for a number of jobs leading up to our show. You can choose what suits your time and efforts. The bonus is that as you are working you have an opportunity to get to know other guild members better. It's a win-win for everyone.

At our April quilt show meeting one of the things we intend to do is finalize our Ribbon Categories for the show. We review these categories every year and consider what's new...what is working and what is not. Your input and feedback is welcome. See the attached Annual Quilt Show Ribbon Award Categories for reference, and if you have any question or ideas, please be ready to share them, either before or at the meeting.

Thanks so much,

Jeannie Mazzacane for Heidi Llanes, Quilt Show Chair, and Belinda Evans
